Buck Week 2026 is December 7th-10th with Sunday kickoff dinner on 6th. As well as our traditional Prime Rib Dinner on Thursday night followed by court.

There will be sign up sheet at the club. Sign up is required so we have head counts for dinners.

Pricing:

- $30 per day (includes breakfast, lunch, dinner, & beer for that day)
- $130 for the full week
- Dinners only Sun-Wed: $10 for members & members' kids; $20 for all other guests
- Thursday Night Dinner (if you are not hunting that day): $25 for members & members' kids; $45 for guests

Meal Times:

- Breakfast: 5:00–5:30 AM
- Dinner: 6:00–6:30 PM
- Thursday Prime Rib Dinner: 7:00–7:30 PM

Morning Safety Meetings: 6:00–6:30 AM

Hunting Eligibility:

All hunting is limited to members and members' immediate family.

Ground Closure Reminder:

All club ground will be closed starting December 2nd, following the two early muzzleloader days. After Thursday's club hunt all land will open up for all hunting.

General Rules of Deer Week

(Please review—especially new members.)

- Federation insurance is required to hunt with the club.
- Buckshot ONLY, NO slugs
- Orange hat and vest are mandatory
- A radio is mandatory (Channel 10-4)
- Guns are to be loaded on stand or on drive ONLY.
- Actions & bolts must remain open unless on stand or on drive.
- Always carry your firearm in a safe manner.
- Captain/lead man is the only one with a loaded gun while going to stand.
- Guns must be cased in vehicles at all times (sock cases recommended)

- We DO NOT shoot does or fox

- Coyotes MAY OR MAY NOT be shot based on properties being hunted or captains decision.
- Do not leave your stand until the drive is officially OVER.
- Do NOT chase after a wounded buck.
- Bucks will be checked ASAP once the drive is over.
- Hunters must tag their deer and properly affix all required information.

  Ryan will carry transport tags, pens, bags, and zip ties.

- Drivers will follow captain instructions on leading left or right.
- Drivers must announce "standers ahead"—this means NO SHOOTING AHEAD by anyone.
- Violations will be addressed by the committee and captains.
- Everyone should know their safety zone—if unsure, ASK.
- If you shoot a buck, you buy a bottle!

Lastly, never hesitate to ask questions or seek clarification. We're here to have a fun week—and more importantly, a SAFE week.

Feel free to contact me with any questions. Thank you.
